Index to Volume 46

Volumes 1-20 and 21-45 of the Journal are indexed in separately-printed indices. Copies will be mailed upon request addressed to the Society at 1155 East 60th Street, Chicago 37, Illinois.

Authors

Allison, Junius L.—The Supreme Court and the doctrine of the right of counsel, co-authored with Whitney North Seymour, 259-266.
Breckinridge, John B.—Kentucky's committee on the administration of justice, 147-149.
Carrigan, Jim R.—The functions of a state court administrator, 30-31.
Chandler, Henry P.—The winds of change in federal judicial administration, 243-249.
Clark, Charles E.—The role of the Supreme Court in federal rule-making, 250-258.
Clark, Tom C.—An idea becomes a national program, 2-3.
Friesen, Ernest C., Jr.—The judicial seminar: foundation for judical education, 22-27.
Harley, Herbert—Quotation and photograph 76.
Editorial—Giants in the earth, 43-44. To promote the efficient administration of justice, 83-84. Judicial reform is on the march, 123-124. Rule of right, not might, 235.
Karlen, Delmar—The House of Lords and the Privy Council, 126-133.
Pound, Roscoe—The causes of popular dissatisfaction with the administration of justice, 55-66.
Scheman, Ronald—Brazil's career judiciary, 134-140.
Seymour, Whitney North—The Supreme Court and the doctrine of the right of counsel, co-authored with Junius L. Allison, 259-266.
Seymour, Whitney North, Jr.—Preserving historic courthouses, 141-146.
Silverstein, Lee—Joint committee programs as a guide for legal research, 28-29.
Vanderbilt, Arthur T.—Will the challenge of law reform be met? 67-68.
Waterman, Sterry R.—Recent reforms in judicial administration, 69-71. Quotation and photograph, 156.
Wigmore, John H.—The spark that kindled the white flame of progress—Pound's St. Paul address of 1906, 50-53.
Winters, Glenn R.—The role of public information in Project Effective Justice, 20-21. The founding of the Society, 45-49. The Supreme Court's leadership in judicial administration, 237-242. Also see editorials.

Lawyers

Internships for all law graduates are needed, 3-4.
Joint Committee programs as a guide for legal research, by Lee Silverstein, 28-29.
Dean Pound and Justice Clark honored, 77.
Pound hailed as founder, 77-78.
Society's Golden Anniversary Award to Roscoe Pound (text), 116.
Roscoe Pound, the only surviving founder of the Society . . . 120.
The Alaska bar association has established a client security fund, 232.
The Supreme Court's leadership in judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 237-242.

National Legal Organizations

American Bar Association—Public and private action brought to bear on problem of defense of accused indigents, 229-230. Also see Joint Committee for the Effective Administration of Justice.

American Judicature Society

Waterman elected president of Society, Dean Pound and Justice Clark honored, 77.
Society leadership—the officers, 85.
The Society's finances—quadrupled in 10 years, 108.
Professionals serve the Society, 109.
The Society's Golden Anniversary—Giants in the earth (editorial), 43-44. The founding of the Society, by Glenn R. Winters, 45-49. Pound hailed as founder, Clark receives award, 77-78. 50th year sustaining members goal of 400 reached, expect 500 by October, 78. Waterman elected president, Dean Pound, and Justice Clark honored, 77. To promote the efficient administration of justice (editorial), 83-84. Semicentennial of the Society, 96-97. Golden Anniversary Award to Roscoe Pound (text), 116. Roscoe Pound, the only surviving founder of the Society . . ., 120. Judge Medina to receive award, 159. Golden Anniversary Award to Harold R. Medina (text), 228. Medina honored at Society's mid-year meeting, 231-232. Society to honor Supreme Court; Goodhart to speak at Washington banquet, 229. The Supreme Court of the United States and the efficient administration of justice—1913-1963, 236. Society will honor the Supreme Court of the United States (banquet announcement), 267. 50th year members campaign underway, 3. 50th year sustaining members (list), 72-74, 100-105. 50th year sustaining members near 700 mark, 118. Golden Anniversary membership campaign and 50th year sustaining member campaign, 125. Golden Anniversary issues of the Journal: August, 41-76; The American Judicature Society, A 50th year report, 81-116; Cumulative index to volumes 21-45 of the Journal, 161-228; The Supreme Court of the United States, 233-268. Society honors Supreme Court leadership in judicial administration, 269.
Membership—Four states now have 20 per cent of the bar in Society, 3. 25,000 is the Golden Anniversary goal, 29, 106. Membership goals, 107. Golden Anniversary membership campaign under way, 118.
Publications—Recent publications of the Society (list), 75, 115, 225. New Pound reprint available, 79. Books, 94. The Journal, 95. Judicial Administration and the Legal Profession, by Fannie J. Klein (book anouncement), 149, 226. Cumulative index to volumes 21-45 of the Journal of the American Judicature Society: Introduction, 163-166; Author index, 167-175; Subject classification scheme, 175-178; Subject index, 179-212; Geographic index, 212-224. Handbook for Judges, compiled and edited by Donald K. Carroll (book announcement), 226.
Meetings—Society meeting held in Salt Lake City, 3. 1962 annual meeting announcement, 4. Mott addresses annual meeting; Winters, Allard on A.B.A. program, 78-79. Mid-south regional meeting (announcement), 80. Awards and meetings, 89. The 49th annual meeting, 98-99. Judicial reform discussed at mid-south meetings of Society and Section, 119. Judge Medina to address Society's meeting, 125. Joint meeting of the Institute of Judicial Administration and Society, 160. Society to honor Supreme Court; Goodhart to speak at Washington banquet, 229, 267. Medina honored at Society's mid-year meeting, 231-232. 1963 annual meeting announcement, 270.
Other Activities—Burney and Winters are speakers, 4. Winters, Allard on A.B.A. program, 78-79. Judicial selection and tenure, minor court reorganization will be subjects of an Oklahoma conference, 80. The Society—A 50th Year report: Action programs—Judicial reform amendments, 86; Bar Associations, 87; Judges, 88; Awards and meetings, 89; Partner in Project Effective Justice, 90-91; Project Effective Justice, 92. A Nevada conference on selection of judges . . . 120. Modern courts for Oklahoma, 150-152. Nevada conference considers Society's judicial selection plan, 157-158. Judicial selection reform on Ohio's legislative agenda, 158-159. The Ohio conference on selection and tenure of judges . . ., 232. Sterry R. Waterman, quotation and photograph, 156. Also see Joint Committee for the Effective Administration of Justice.
Joint Committee for the Effective Administration of Justice—Project Effective Justice, 1961-1962—A first year report of activities: An idea becomes a national program, 2-3; Joint Committee members, cooperating organizations, 4-5; Subcommittees and the staff, 6; First year in review, 8-11; The year's projects, 12-16; Projects to come, 17-18; The W. K. Kellogg Foundation, 19; Role of public information in Project Effective Justice, by Glenn R. Winters, 20-21; The judicial seminar foundation for judicial education, by Ernest C. Friesen, Jr., 22-27; Joint committee programs as a guide for legal research, 28-29; Functions of a state court administrator, 30-31, by Jim R. Carrigan, 30-31; The action team, 32-33; Justice is effective when . . . 34. Judicial selection and tenure, minor court reorganization . . ., 80. Partner in Project Effective Justice, 90-91. Project Effective Justice, 92-93. A Nevada conference on selection of judges . . ., 120. Modern courts for Oklahoma, 150-152. Nevada conference considers Society's judicial selection plan, 157-158. Judicial selection reform on Ohio's legislative agenda, 158-159. The Ohio conference on selection and tenure of judges . . ., 232.
National Legal Aid and Defender Association—Public and private action brought to bear on problem of defense of accused indigents, 229-230. The Supreme Court and the doctrine of the right of counsel, by Junius L. Allison and Whitney North Seymour, 259-266.
National Council of Juvenile Court Judges—Education program launched for juvenile court judges, 154.

Bar Organization Activities

Bench and bar calendar, 155.
Preserving historic courthouses, by

Whitney North Seymour, Jr., 141-146.

Integration of the Bar

Lawyers of Israel have had an integrated bar . . ., 160.
The Supreme Court's leadership in judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 237-242.
Georgia becomes the 28th state to unify bar, 269.

Legal Service for All

Public and private action brought to bear on problem of defense of accused indigents, 229-230.
The Supreme Court and the doctrine of the right of counsel, by Junius L. Allison and Whitney North Seymour, 259-266.

Bar Association Efforts for Judicial Reform

The spark that kindled the white flame of progress—Pound's St. Paul address of 1906, John H. Wigmore, 50-53.
Will the challenge of law reform be met? by Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 67-68.
Recent reforms in judicial administration, by Sterry R. Waterman, 69-71.
Herbert Harley, quotation and photograph, 76.
Society's action programs . . . Bar associations, 87.
Judicial reform is on the march (editorial), 123-124.
Modern courts for Oklahoma, 150-152.
Judicial selection reform on Ohio's legislative agenda, 158-159.
The Ohio conference on selection and tenure of judges . . ., 232.

Judges

Clark receives award, 77-78.
Society's action programs . . . Judges, 88.
Judge Medina to receive award, 159.
Handbook for Judges, compiled and edited by Donald K. Carroll (book announcement), 226.
The Supreme Court's leadership in judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 237-242.
Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, 1913-1963 (list and photograph), 268.

Judicial Selection and Qualifications

Recent reforms in judicial administration, by Sterry R. Waterman, 69-71.
Brazil—Its career judiciary, by Ronald Scheman, 134-140.
District of Columbia—A judicial selection committee to nominate candidates . . ., 4.
Iowa—Iowa adopts Society's judicial selection plan for state judges, 1, 2-3.
Michigan—New constitution approved by convention, 1-2.
Missouri—Proposal to extend nonpartisan judicial selection to St. Louis County approved in state senate . . ., 232.
Nebraska—Society's judicial selection plan wins in Nebraska, 117-118.
Nevada—Conference on selection of judges . . ., 120. Conference considers Society's judicial selection plan, 157-158.
New Mexico—Bar of New Mexico renews efforts to improve judicial selection, 153-154.
Ohio—Conference on selection and tenure of judges . . ., 232. Judicial selection reform on Ohio's legislative agenda, 158-159.
Oklahoma—New precedents in selection procedures . . ., 80. Judicial selection and tenure, minor court reorganization . . ., 80. Project Effective Justice, 92-93. W. St. John Garwood will speak . . ., 120. Modern courts for Oklahoma, 150-152.
Pennsylvania—New precedents in judicial selection procedures are being set . . ., 80.
Wisconsin—Project Effective Justice, 92-93.

Judicial Education

The year's projects of the Joint Committee, 12-16.
Some projects to come, 17-18.
The judicial seminar: foundation for judicial education, 22-27.
Education program launched for juvenile court judges, 154.

Compensation and Retirement

Kentucky circuit judges among lowest paid major trial judges in nation . . ., 4.
"Recent changes in judicial retirement and pension plans" . . . (Information sheet announcement), 4.
Compulsory retirement of Missouri judges at age 70 will be introduced . . ., 160.
Bills providing for $5,000 judicial salary increase in Tennessee . . ., 232.
The winds of change in federal judicial administration, by Henry P. Chandler, 243-249.

Courts

Court Organization and Jurisdiction

The causes of popular dissatisfaction with the administration of justice, by Roscoe Pound, 55-66.
Will the challenge of law reform be met? by Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 67-68.
Recent reforms in judicial administration, by Sterry R. Waterman, 69-71.
Survey of Metropolitan Courts, by Maxine Virtue, (book announcement), 226.
Arkansas—A complete survey of the judicial system, 270.
Brazil—Its career judiciary, by Ronald Scheman,134-140.
Colorado, Illinois, New York, North Carolina—Court reorganization reform—1962, 110-114. Greatest state court reform victory in American history, 117-118.
Michigan—New constitution for Michigan approved by convention, 1-2. Court reorganization reform, 1962, 110-114. Michigan voters have approved a new state constitution . . ., 232.
Oregon—Revision of constitution of Oregon being distributed . . ., 160.
Pennsylvania—Major constitutional reform proposed, 153.
South Dakota—The year's projects, 12-16.

Courts of Last Resort

The House of Lords and the Privy Council, by Delmar Karlen, 126-133.
Supreme Court of the United States—Rule of right, not might (editorial), 235. The Supreme Court and the Efficient Administration of Justice, 1913-1963, 236. The Supreme Court's leadership in judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 237-242. The winds of change in federal judicial administration, by Henry P. Chandler, 243-249, 266. The role of the Supreme Court in federal rule-making, by Charles E. Clark, 250-258. The Supreme Court and the doctrine of the right of counsel, by Junius L. Allison and Whitney North Seymour, 259-266. Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, 1913-1963 (list and photograph), 268.

Courts of Limited Jurisdiction

Canada—District and county court reforms adopted in Ontario, 154.
Colorado—Greatest state court reform victory in American history, 117-118.
Idaho—Court reorganization reform—1962, 110-114. Greatest state court reform victory in American history, 117-118.
Montana—The way to minor court reform will be opened . . ., 4. Court reorganization reform—1962, 110-114.
New Jersey—Minor court improvements to go before legislature, 159.
New Mexico—Legislation to improve justice of the peace courts passed, 270.
North Carolina—Greatest state court reform victory in American history, 117-118.
Oklahoma—Judicial selection and tenure, minor court reorganization, 80. Modern courts for Oklahoma, 150-152.
Utah—Establishment of a new minor court system recommended . . ., 4.
Washington—New civil criminal, traffic and general rules become effective, 270.
Wyoming—A proposed judicial reform amendment to constitution will go to the voters, 232.

Court Administration

The functions of state court administrator, by Jim R. Carrigan, 30-31.
Recent reforms in judicial administration, by Sterry R. Waterman, 69-71.
Project Effective Justice (Puerto Rico), 92-93.
Preserving historic courthouses, by Whitney North Seymour, Jr., 141-146.
Kentucky's committee on the administration of justice, by John B. Breckinridge, 147-149.
The winds of change in federal judicial administration, by Henry P. Chandler, 243-249.
Colorado, Illinois, New York, North Carolina, Washington—Court reorganization reform—1962, 110-114. Greatest state court reform victory in American history, 117-118.

Court Congestion

District of Columbia—Attack on 2,000 case backlog of juvenile court intensified . . ., 160.
Federal—The winds of change in federal judicial administration, by Henry P. Chandler, 243-249.
Illinois—Concerted attack on 40,000 case backlog in Cook County . . ., 120.
New York—Backlogs have been reduced, 270.
Ohio—The year's projects, 12-16. Project Effective Justice, 92-93.
Washington—Greatest state court reform victory in American history, 117-118.

Procedure

The causes of popular dissatisfaction with the administration of justice, by Roscoe Pound, 55-66.
Will the challenge of law reform be met? by Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 67-68.
California—California improves pre-trial procedures, 154.
Federal—Reduction to five members for civil trials was proposed . . ., 160. The Supreme Court's leadership in judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 237-242. The Supreme Court and the doctrine of the right of counsel, by Junius L. Allison and Whitney North Seymour, 259-266. The role of the Supreme Court in federal rule-making, by Charles E. Clark, 250-258.
Maryland—Baltimore expands field of juror selection, 159-160.
Washington—New rules for courts of limited jurisdiction become effective, 270.

Judicial Administration in General

Justice is effective when . . ., 34.
Causes of popular dissatisfaction with the administration of justice, by Roscoe Pound, 55-66.
Will the challenge of law reform be met? by Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 67-68.
Kentucky's committee on the administration of justice, by John B. Beckinridge, 147-149.
Sterry R. Waterman, quotation and photograph, 156.
Judicial Administration and the Legal Profession, by Fannie J. Klein (book announcement), 149, 226.
The Supreme Court's leadership in judicial administration, by Glenn R. Winters, 237-242.